Television & Film Producer Danielle Weinstock Releases Debut Title
_Can This Elephant Curtsy on Cue? Life Lessons Learned on a Film Set for Women in Business_ Producer for _Weeds_, _Crossing Jordan_ and _24_ Shares Career Secrets

HOLLYWOOD, CA (March 2008)—Hollywood film and television producer Danielle Weinstock has released her debut book, titled _Can This Elephant Curtsy on Cue? Life Lessons Learned on a Film Set for Women in Business_. An eighteen-year veteran of the entertainment industry, Danielle shares her expertise on a wide range of career and workplace issues for women such as changing careers successfully, managing difficult coworkers (including celebrities to balky animals) by finding and fostering their strengths, working with unreasonable bosses, dealing with sexual harassment, maintaining one’s dignity at work, handling responsibility without authority, balancing work and family as a single working mother and more.

_Can This Elephant Curtsy on Cue? Life Lessons Learned on a Film Set for Women in Business_ is the definitive guide for women at all levels of their careers, including the one million young women who enter the workforce each year. Weinstock uses practical advice, entertaining anecdotes and witty observations in this well-organized, easy-to-understand book to show women how to navigate the complexities of the business world while maintaining a rewarding and self fulfilling career.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Film and television producer Danielle Weinstock has worked on more than thirty feature films, television shows, mini-series, movies made for television and documentaries. As a single working mother, she has a unique perspective into what it takes to build a successful career on one’s own terms. Since jumping into show business as a production accountant, Danielle changed career paths from CPA to producer and has contributed to some of today’s most successful television and film projects such as _Weeds_, _Crossing Jordan_, _The Minor Accomplishments of Jackie Woodman_, _24_, _White Fang II_, _Fantasy Island_ and _The Agency_. She also wrote the documentary _A Song’s Best Friend: John Denver Remembered_, which aired on PBS. Danielle is a member of both the Directors Guild of America and the Producers Guild of America. _Can This Elephant Curtsy on Cue? Life Lessons Learned on a Film Set for Women in Business_ is her debut book.

Please contact Jenny Corsey at The Spizman Agency (jenny@spizmanagency.com or 770.953.2040) to request an advance copy of _Can This Elephant Curtsy on Cue?_ (Smith & Kraus, 2008) or to schedule an interview with Danielle Weinstock. Visit www.danielleweinstock.com for more information.

###